The present invention is generally related to an electronic book system comprising a viewer capable of displaying and allowing audio presentation of selected portion of an electronic book.

The rejection under 112 first paragraph has been withdrawn in light of applicant's remark.

The claims are allowed because the prior arts of record alone or in combination do not teach the step of receiving a selection from a menu with an option for a text to audio conversion and converting via the library the portion of the selected text as recited in the claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
